

Drip Edge Color Selection Guide

Drip edge is a piece of metal flashing that goes directly under the shingle at the roofline and prevents water from rolling underneath the shingle onto the roof decking. It became code in Georgia in 2014.

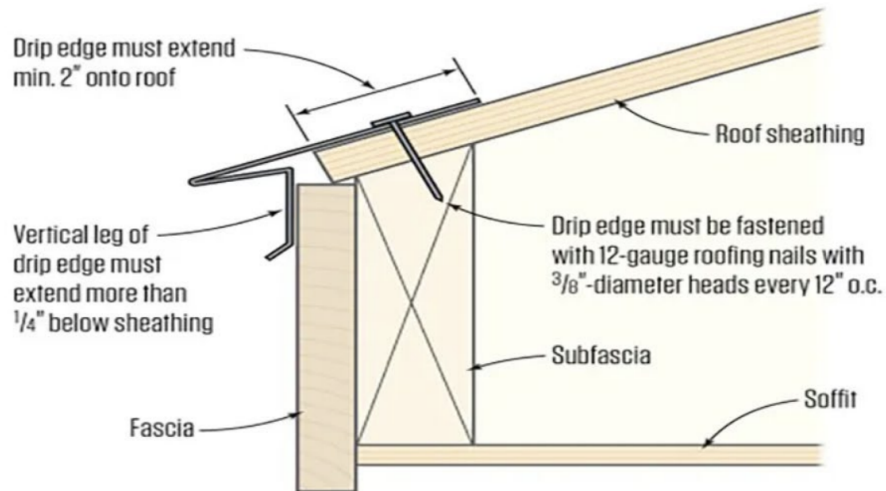

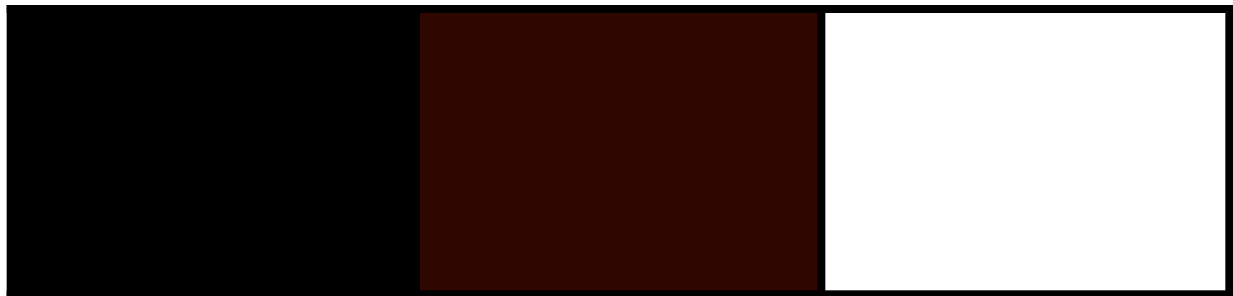

Image Copyrights: Windstorm inspection program, July 2022 Newsletter, tdi.texas.gov, extract from IRC 2018 Code requirements.

Black	Brown	White
-------	-------	-------